Case #: 20-0008-I

Dear Inspector General Cumming:

I have received your report for investigation (Case #20-0008-I) that references a complaint about Tonya Miller, Executive Director of Cable and Communications for the Office of the Mayor regarding out-of-town travel. I appreciate the thorough investigation done by the Office of the Inspector (OIG). As a result of your investigation, I have since discussed with her the actions of her trip and the perils associated with re-negotiating cost after the Board of Estimate (BOE) approval. I am pleased that she was able to save costs for the City. As of today, I have ensured she is aware and has been informed of the current process for approval going forward. Thank you again for your thorough report, and should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kimberly R. Morton
Chief of Staff
Office of the Mayor
